Safety Instructions:

- Not suitable for children under 3 years. Choking hazard due to small parts.
- When stacking books, make sure that the bookends cannot tip over. Make sure that they are stable and secure them on firm surfaces.
- Do not use or store the product near water to avoid corrosion and rust formation.
- Secure the product against falling, tipping over and when used on raised surfaces.
- Only use on stable surfaces. Avoid sharp edges and uneven surfaces.
- If the product is soiled, clean immediately to ensure slip resistance.
- Do not use the bookends solely for decoration; they are designed to hold books.
- Do not leave unattended with children, as the bookends may pose a risk of injury.
- Keep the bookends away from children to avoid the risk of suffocation.
- Take care when handling strongly magnetic components. Magnets can be dangerous for electronic devices and medical implants.
