Safety Instructions:

- Risk of slipping during intensive use, only use the mat on flat, dry surfaces and make sure that the surface is stable to minimise the risk of falling.
- Periodic inspection of the mat for cracks or wear is recommended, especially under high mechanical loads.
- Provide appropriate cleaning and maintenance instructions to maintain slip resistance and consider use of protective equipment in high-risk environments.
- When used in chemically contaminated environments, observe the chemical-resistant properties.
- Ensure the prevention of slipping accidents by providing sufficient slip resistance (R11/V10).
