

Product Safety Information

Stacking box series 14/6-1, made of PP, with recessed grip, capacity 71 L

Manufacturer/Responsible Person: Schäfer Shop GmbH, Industriestraße 65, 57518 Betzdorf, Deutschland

E-Mail: info@schaefer-shop.de

Please note the technical data of the products!

Article Numbers: 90948, 90947, 90946, 90945

Safety Instructions:

- Do not bring the product into contact with temperatures above 100°C or below -20°C in order to avoid material damage.
- If the product is damaged or cracked, do not use it to avoid the risk of injury.
- Do not clean with harmful chemicals or aggressive cleaning agents to ensure material integrity.
- Ensure safe stacking and do not stack above the recommended maximum stacking height to avoid instability.
- The stacking box may only be used for its intended purpose in accordance with the product specification.
- Do not overload the stacking box with heavy loads to prevent accidents caused by tipping over.
- Use suitable cleaning agents that will not damage the materials.
- The stacking box should be checked regularly for damage in order to recognise safety risks at an early stage.
- Avoid sharp objects in the box to prevent damage.
- Do not fill above the maximum capacity of 71 L to minimise the risk of malfunctions during transport.
- Keep the product away from incompatible liquids and chemical substances.
- Ensure that the product remains stable when used on conveyor lines.
- Never place near heat sources, as extreme temperatures can impair material properties.
- The product is not suitable for permanent outdoor use, service life may be impaired.
- Ensure labelling in accordance with the citing product safety regulations.
- The applicable safety regulations must always be observed when handling the stacking box in order to avoid injuries.