Safety Instructions:

- Only use the board for its intended purpose. Do not use as a climbing aid or for unnamed purposes.
- Make sure that the board is stable to prevent injuries from tipping over. Only use them on stable, level surfaces.
- When using rotating functions, ensure that there are no persons or objects in the danger zone. The panel can be rotated through 360°.
- Avoid overloading the board, including the storage tray, to prevent instability.
- Only use the board with suitable markers so as not to damage the surface.
- Keep sharp or pointed objects away from the board to avoid scratches or damage.
- Clean the panel regularly with suitable cleaning agents. Strong cleaning agents could damage the coating.
- Children may only use the board under adult supervision to avoid the risk of falling and injury.
- Install and remove the panel in accordance with the operating instructions to avoid improper installation.
- Regularly check the stability of the board and the castors. Make sure that the castors can be locked to prevent them from rolling away unintentionally.
- The mobile writing tablet is only suitable for indoor use; do not use outdoors.
- Make sure that the board is securely locked in place to prevent it from falling over unintentionally.
- Handle the panel carefully during transport to avoid injury from tipping over.
- Check the brakes on the castors before use to prevent the board from slipping.
- Only use the castors on smooth surfaces; stability could be impaired on uneven floors.
