

Product Safety Information

Drum lifter RS 1/M

Please note the technical data of the products!

Article Numbers: 73851, 73747, 73746

Safety Instructions:

- Use the product on a stable surface.
- Secure the product during use to prevent it from tipping over.
- Avoid contact with liquids to prevent corrosion of the steel parts.
- Only to be operated by trained personnel.
- Wear suitable personal protective equipment such as safety shoes and gloves when operating.
- Carefully follow the safety instructions for using the drum lifter.
- Only use the product for its intended purpose.
- Position the drum lifter on a stable and level surface.
- Ensure that the maximum load capacity of 800 kg is not exceeded.
- Carry out regular maintenance and inspection of the appliance in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions.
- Avoid the risk of collision with persons and objects.
- Users should be trained to operate the drum lifter efficiently and safely.
- Use requires correct handling to avoid injury.
- Observe the maximum load capacity to avoid overloading.
- Use the product under constant supervision, especially for inexperienced persons.
- Avoid contact with moving parts during operation.
- Ensure protective measures against the drums slipping.