Safety Instructions:

- Take care not to overheat the envelopes, as the self-adhesive surface could be damaged.
- Keep the envelopes out of the reach of children to avoid accidental ingestion.
- Avoid contact with water, as this can impair the adhesive properties.
- Make sure that the envelopes are used on a clean and dry surface.
- No choking hazard, but note small parts if included.
- The safety of the product depends on its correct use, especially when using the pressure-sensitive adhesive closure.
- Products must be properly labelled with the manufacturer's contact details and safety instructions.
