Safety Instructions:

- Before use, ensure that the folding high tables are properly assembled and stable.
- When transporting the high tables, do not overload the transport trolley and only use it on level surfaces, avoiding excessive long-distance loads.
- Do not use the tables as a ladder or to support excessive weights.
- When used outdoors, ensure that the high tables are protected from extreme weather conditions and stored indoors in bad weather.
- Be aware of the risk of fire from hot objects on the Sevelit panel.
- Use by children should only take place under adult supervision and keep tables out of the reach of children to avoid injury.
- Use the castors on suitable surfaces and ensure that the parking brake is applied to prevent rolling away.
- Avoid crushing hazards when folding the tables.
