

Product Safety Information

Barrel racking BAUER Series 3000, basic racking, sump tray, various versions. Versions

Please note the technical data of the products!

Article Numbers: 460865, 460863, 460861, 460859

Safety Instructions:

- Caution: Storage of flammable liquids to avoid the risk of fire. Ensure that the various hazardous substances of GHS 1-3 cannot come into contact with each other.
- Use only for the intended purpose. Take appropriate protective measures when handling the rack and drums. Users must wear appropriate personal protective equipment when handling hazardous substances. Ensure that the rack is stable and correctly assembled to prevent tipping. Ensure that only trained personnel work with the racking.
- The product is not suitable for use by children.
- Regular inspections of the material are necessary to ensure structural integrity. Regular inspection and logging of the sump is required to prevent environmental damage from leaks.
- Risk of suffocation due to improper handling or storage of water-polluting substances and drums.
- Risk of corrosion and environmental damage from the material if stored improperly. Risk management due to the material's sensitivity to corrosion.
- Safe storage of water-polluting substances of GHS 1-4 to prevent environmental damage.
- Observe protective measures when storing and handling hazardous substances.