

Product Safety Information

Schulte Lagertechnik push-through protection for pallet racks

Manufacturer/Responsible Person: Gebrüder Schulte GmbH & Co. KG, Zum Dümpel 22, 59846 Sundern, Deutschland

E-Mail: info@schulte-onlineshop.de

Please note the technical data of the products!

Article Numbers: 656303, 656302, 656301, 656300, 656299, 656295, 656294

Safety Instructions:

- Prevent load units from being pushed through unintentionally to avoid accidents and damage. Attach the push-through protection correctly to ensure that it functions properly.
- Only use the fixing material included in the scope of delivery for safe installation. Obligation to use the fixing material provided for secure installation.
- Be aware of tripping hazards when working near the racking and keep the work area clean. Keep the area around the pallet racks free of obstacles to ensure safe working conditions.
- Regularly check the installation and functionality of the push-through protection. Regularly check the condition of the push-through protection, in particular for signs of corrosion or damage. Regularly check the stability and completeness of the assembly. Regularly check the safety devices to ensure that they are functioning properly.
- Use the push-through protection in accordance with the assembly and operating instructions for optimum safety. Only use the push-through protection with compatible shelving systems. Only use the push-through protection for the intended pallet racking.
- Incorrect use or damage can lead to accidents. If in doubt, contact the manufacturer. Risk of suffocation from unattended load units.
- Check the fastening material before use.
- Do not place excessive loads on the shelves. Avoid placing excessive loads on the shelves.
- Ensure that the push-through protection is suitable for the specific pallet height. Only use compatible pallets that meet the push-through protection specifications.
- Keep the product away from children to avoid injury from improper use.